

COALITION FOR THE HOMELESS

Rebuilding Lives Strengthening Communities

2014 ANNUAL REPORT

HELPING THE HOMELESS

About Us

The Coalition for the Homeless provides direct supportive services to homeless men and families with children. Since our inception in 1979, the Coalition has helped provide solutions in the District of Columbia that have helped reduce homelessness. The Coalition operates 12 programs including the Virginia Williams Family Resource Center (VWFRC), the central intake office for all families in the District of Columbia seeking emergency housing assistance and shelter. In general, services at the various sites include case management, employment and housing placement assistance, substance abuse counseling, life skills training, substance abuse prevention and social skills development.

Goals

- Increase homeless prevention services.
- Transition individuals and families to affordable permanent housing.
- Increase public awareness and support of homeless issues.
- Maximize vital educational and job readiness support for homeless citizens.
- Provide access to job training and employment placement services.
- Reduce the number of homeless people in shelters.
- Strengthen and develop partnerships with other organizations.

Mission

The Coalition's mission is to help transition homeless and at risk individuals and families to self-sufficiency through housing programs and supportive services.

Vision

Rebuilding lives through the elimination of homelessness.

Definition of Terms

EMERGENCY SHELTER is a facility with the primary purpose of providing temporary shelter for homeless people.

INDIVIDUALS are people who are not part of a family during their episode of homelessness. They are homeless as single adults, unaccompanied youth, or in multiple-adult or multiple-child households.

PEOPLE IN FAMILIES are people who are homeless as part of households that have at least one adult and one child.

TRANSITIONAL HOUSING PROGRAMS provides homeless people temporary housing with supportive social services for up to 24 months in order to help them to become more self-sufficient and move into permanent housing.

Message from Chairman and Executive Director

Dear Friends,

The Coalition produced great results in 2014 because of support, leadership, and collaboration among compassionate and dedicated organizations, foundations and individuals. Thank you!

GEOFFREY P. LEWIS
Chairperson

Executive Director

We all want to believe if the occasion should arise that someone will be there to help. Because we harness the power of a caring community, homelessness ended for 299 individuals and families. They worked valiantly to overcome their conditions, moved from shelter and stabilized in permanent housing. The Coalition also provided rental and housing prevention assistance to 14 families with children and 168 individuals are no longer jobless.

Through a combination of our employment programs and our 6th Annual Jobs, Training and Educational Opportunity Fair held September 25, 2014, we helped 160 individuals have the opportunity to seek employment or improve their careers. Twenty employers and ten training providers participated and over 400 job seekers were in attendance. Each year this event is getting bigger and better.

To meet the increasing needs of those who are homeless, the Virginia Williams Family Resource Center reopened following one year of renovation. The center marked the occasion with a ribbon-cutting ceremony on Oct. 7, 2014. DC Mayor Vincent Gray, representatives from the DC Department of Human Services (DHS) and families seeking services at the center were among those in attendance. Homeless families can apply for shelter, rental assistance and sign up for a range of other supportive services. The goal is to help families move toward self-sufficiency.

We grossed over $68,000 during our Stepping out for the Homeless fundraising event on November 7, 2014. The funds we secured helped enable the Coalition to respond to the growing demands for services while remaining steadfast in our commitment to long-term solutions to homelessness. The evening was thoroughly enjoyable and the outpouring of both financial and moral support was particularly meaningful because several sponsors and board members were in attendance.

You will find statistics in this report that illustrates the scope and reach of our services in 2014. Each of these numbers represents a vulnerable person who deserves a stable, safe home and access to supportive services delivered with dignity. We hope you also enjoy some of the photos.

We wish to thank our donors, supporters as well as our exemplary staff, volunteers and clients for your commitment to our community. You are the very core of our vital mission to end homelessness.

Sincerely,

GEOFFREY P. LEWIS

The Virginia Williams Family Resource Center Reopens to Serve Families with Children

The newly-renovated Virginia Williams Family Resource Center reopened at 920 Rhode Island Avenue. The center marked the occasion with a ribbon-cutting ceremony on Tuesday, October 7, 2014. DC Mayor Vincent Gray, representatives from the Community Partnership for the Prevention of Homelessness, DC Department of Human Services (DHS), Coalition for the Homeless (CFH) and families seeking services at the center were among those in attendance. The renovation work was prompted by the Homeless Services Integration Initiative. In the newly-renovated Center, those in need of help can apply for shelter, rental assistance, and a range of other supportive services and programs including Temporary Assistance for Needy Families, food stamps, and Medicaid. The goal is to help clients avoid or overcome homelessness and move toward self-sufficiency.

Phyllis Caston-Morgan, a client of the Center since January 2014, spoke at the ceremony about what the Virginia Williams Resource Center (VWFRC) has meant to her and her son. VWFRC provided assistance in helping her find permanent housing. Caston-Morgan said she is excited for the future of the VWFRC. “I hope the Center keeps on progressing the way it is, because it’s very helpful for children and single mothers and fathers. I really love the Center a lot.”

Success Stories

HOMELESSNESS DOES NOT MEAN HELPLESSNESS

Darrell King
EMERY WORK BED PROGRAM

In August 2013, Mr. Darrell King needed help from the Emery Work Bed Program. He was employed but was not making enough money to afford his own apartment for him and his wife and did not want to intrude on family members. Unfortunately, the move to Emery resulted in him having to be separated from his wife. He says prior to his arrival he was living from one place to another. Mr. King says it was financially draining; it was difficult for him to save money and get back on his feet. Mr. King heard about the Emery Work Bed Program and its services and decided to give it a try. However, he had mixed emotions on whether or not Emery was the place for him. He soon realized he needed structure in order to exercise self-discipline, learn responsibility, sustain employment and learn how to budget and save money. Mr. King asserts that Emery provided an opportunity for change. Mr. King admitted that his life is much better now than it was a year ago. He is in his own apartment and most importantly reunited with his wife and granddaughter. Mr. King wishes to thank all of Emery's staff, especially Mr. Parker, Mr. Tom and Mr. Baylor for helping him move on with his future.

Neffie Keitazulu
VALLEY PLACE FAMILY APARTMENTS

Ms. Neffie Keitazulu is currently at Valley Place Family Apartments with her six year old daughter Ariana. She is currently a full-time Relief Manager at a public storage facility. She recently graduated with a Bachelor's Degree in Criminal Justice Administration from Westwood College. She has completed employment applications to become a Police Officer in Washington, DC and Prince George's County. In addition, she is considering a career in the United States Air Force. If Ms. Keitazulu decides on a military career, she would like to be commissioned as an officer. Despite her challenges she is determined to remain positive and optimistic. She attends church regularly and is a member of the Spirit of Faith Christian Center in Temple Hills, MD. She is very grateful to the staff at Valley Place for helping her become more self-sufficient.

Curtis Burwell
BLAIR TRANSITIONAL REHABILITATION PROGRAM

Curtis Burwell was homeless and unemployed. In April 2012, he took steps to change his life and was accepted into the Blair Transitional Rehabilitation Program. He wasted no time, in July 2012, he enrolled in a 10-week Certified Home Health Aide Training Program at Opportunities Industrial Center (OIC). After graduating from the program, he was hired as a Nursing Aide by KBC Nursing Agency. He immediately started saving 65 percent of his income. He joined Back on My Feet (BOMF), a non-profit organization that promotes the self-sufficiency of homeless people by engaging them in running as a means to build confidence, strength and self-esteem. He ran with BOMF because he says it pushed his physical limits to realize his inner potential. Mr. Burwell followed the rules of the program and thanks to the collective efforts of the staff, Mr. Burwell moved to the Coalition's Sherman Avenue Single Room Occupancy in November 2014.

Volunteering Does Make a Difference

ANNUAL VOLUNTEER AND STAFF RECEPTION

October 7, 2014

The Coalition for the Homeless held its Annual Volunteer and Staff Reception at St. Francis Hall in Washington D.C. on October 7, 2014. Our staff and volunteers are among our greatest assets. We are proud to have so many long-term employees and volunteers dedicate their time and talent to serving men, women and children who are homeless. Chairman of the board of directors, Geoffrey P. Lewis and Michael L. Ferrell, Executive Director, thanked everyone for their hard work and commitment. Staff was recognized for 20, 15, 10, and 5 years of service. Volunteers recognized for their vital work in supporting individuals and families were Ray of Hope Foundation Inc., Darrel Smith-Bey, DC Children's Trust Fund, Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc., and Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc.

RAY OF HOPE FOUNDATION, INTERNATIONAL

Bringing Smiles to Families at Spring Road Family Apartments

Christmas can be the hardest time for families living in a shelter, especially for children. The staff at Spring Road make the holidays as special as they can. For the past 2 years, Ray of Hope Foundation has been bringing smiles to the children at Spring Road Family Apartments. Ray of Hope Foundation has hosted several toy drives to provide Christmas gifts. This event has been more than just giving gifts; it is a way of letting families know how much we care, says Shelter Director, Tiffany Hughes.

Spotlight on Volunteers

GIVING ALL YEAR

Mr. Darryl Smith-Bey is the Community Outreach Representative for Health Services for Children with Special Needs, Inc. Mr. Smith-Bey started volunteering at Valley Place Family Apartments in 2009 when he delivered a truckload of donations.

Over the years Mr. Smith-Bey and Health Services for Children with Special Needs have donated food, toys, clothing, books, winter coats, and household items to our families. During 2014 holiday season, Mr. Smith-Bey delivered books, and boxes of toys, including a pink doll house that made two little girls very happy.

What is special about Mr. Darryl Smith Bey and Health Services for Children with Special Needs is that they donate throughout the year not just during the holiday season and they take the time to share their resources. Valley Place staff and residents are grateful for organizations and people like Mr. Darryl Smith-Bey

VOLUNTEERS FROM DC CHILDREN'S TRUST FUND

Provide Life Skills Training

You can find volunteers Sig Cohen, Charletta Green and Juanita Jones from the DC Children's Trust Fund, every Monday providing resume and life skills training at Blair House Transitional Program. Life skills are essential for living independently and helping people acquire life skills that can help them move from homelessness to independent living. Training includes knowing how to work at a job and be part of a team, money and time management, budgeting, living as part of a family, and learning effective communication skills. One of the goals is to help clients who are fathers to become a responsible parent.

ALPHA KAPPA ALPHA SORORITY, INC., AND OMEGA PSI PHI FRATERNITY, INC. JOIN TOGETHER TO PROVIDE HOLIDAY CHEER TO THE MEN AT BLAIR HOUSE TRANSITIONAL PROGRAM

During the holiday season, local members of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated and Omega Psi Phi Fraternity Incorporated joined together to volunteer at the Emery Work Bed Program's Desserts for the Homeless Initiative. The idea was designed to empower and strengthen the men in the program who during the holiday season may struggle with depression. It is a way to lift their spirits by providing celebrations, and social gatherings.

Over fifty members of both organizations donated desserts, beverages, and service hours to the men during the holidays. Omega Psi Phi donated suits, ties, shoes and toiletries which helped the men prepare for interviews. The clients participated in Step Shows, helped decorate and everyone joined in to sing holiday songs. Everyone was smiling and having a good time.

Dr. Rosalyn Aker-Black, Clinical Psychologist and member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., facilitated a discussion on family and personal relationships. The men asked questions and gave personal testimonies of their struggles. After the group, several men committed to contacting their children and/or other members in their family with the goal of improving the relationship and working on effective communication.

SIXTH ANNUAL JOBS, TRAINING, AND EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITY FAIR

September 25, 2014

The Coalition for the Homeless (CFH) hosts its 6th Annual Jobs, Training and Education Opportunity Fair. The event was held on Thursday, September 25, 2014, from 9:00 a.m. to 1:30 p.m., at the The ARC Boys and Girls Club in SE Washington, DC. The Coalition partnered with employers from around the DC metro area to recruit people for jobs in a variety of service industries and apprenticeship training. CFH recognizes the importance of cross-system strategies to increase employment among people with barriers to employment.

The event offered opportunities for all those seeking employment or who wish to develop their careers. In order to get the most from this opportunity, job seekers were asked to bring a copy of their resume. Onsite interviews were offered, assistance with online job applications, interviewing techniques and tips to create or revise their resume. Some of the employers that participated were Southwest Airlines, Giant Food Store, Hyatt Regency, Marriott Marquis, Sofitel Hotel, Prince Security, First Transit, DC Central Kitchen, Office of Human Rights, University of the District of Columbia, DC

Department of Employment Services, Walmart, America Works of Washington, DC, U.S. Vets, United Planning Organization and a host of other employers who provided trainings, and educational programs.

Stepping Out

For the Homeless™

DANCING, DANCING, DANCING

St. Francis Hall, Washington, DC

We had a great time at the 2nd annual Stepping Out for the Homeless fundraising dance on November 7, 2014 at St. Francis Hall in Washington, D.C. Line dancing is thriving all over the world and it keeps people on the floor. Chairman of the Board of Directors Geoffrey Lewis and his wife Lisa joined us again this year and had a great time. Mrs. Izeta Ferrell helped keep us all moving and has never backed down from a line dance yet! We grossed over $68,000 for the Emergency Housing Assistance Program to help prevent families with children from becoming homeless and help others who are already homeless to move out of shelter into permanent housing.

The evening was thoroughly enjoyable and the outpouring of both financial and moral support was particularly meaningful. Thank you to our sponsors: Connors Foundation, Share Fund, Wells Fargo, Trade Center Management Associates, Capitol Document Solutions, Discount Tree Services, Inc., and Coalition for the Homeless Board of Directors. Also, thank you to vendors, individuals who registered, and those who could not attend but made donations. Thanks to My Office Products for their support in purchasing tickets and printing some of our event materials.

Bravo to members of the Development Committee and Chairman Richard Appleton and board members for helping to provide guidance in making this event successful. Thank you to the Coalition staff who are engaged in our fundraising efforts. A special thank you to volunteers; Brenda Delaney, Pat Lumpkin, Sheree Pressley, Pamela Bean, who traveled from Rhode Island and Llewellyn Phyllis who traveled from New Orleans.

Thank You To Our Supporters

The work we do at the Coalition for the Homeless would not be possible without the generous support of individuals, corporations, and foundations in our community.
